We were invited by Woodland Park Zoo to feed the giraffes! During the spring/summer the Zoo offers twice daily giraffe feedings to the public, among other daily activities. Participants are invited to take turns feeding leaves to each giraffe, which they grab and eat up with their crazy, long tongues that twirl up into their mouths. We were lucky to get a private meeting with these beauties and some one-on-one time from the Zoo staff that gave us the low down on all things giraffe and zoo related. Keep posted on all the latest zoo happenings here. Woodland Park Zoo is a short drive or bus ride from the Inn at the Market, ask our Front Desk staff the best way to get there.

Why: Reviews that count

“How come everybody here is so nice?”

○○○○○ Reviewed 4 weeks ago

Lots of small things add up to the best imaginable hotel stay. A glass of wine for the late arrival after a very long drive. Someone in the elevator lobby to make sure the key card-operated elevator experience works smoothly. Advice on less expensive alternatives to the hotel's valet parking. Never making you feel like you're asking for too much, and dealing with complaints rapidly and thoroughly. Looking really glad to see us. And of course the goldfish.

Everyone is so nice because we have the best guests! And we've figured out what makes every guest happy: coffee in the morning, wine in the evening, and a friendly fish to come home to. Honestly, where are just there to help with whatever you need.

Thanks for the love!
Jessica
